Oh, well then you do...

Hello? Is this Eddie Brock?

Peter Parker... Peter Parker...

Oh, God...

Get out of here! How are you? If you find me, where are you?

I live in Queens. I...

Yeah, I know. I looked you up.

Hey, I'm in the city. I go to Empire State.

Yeah...

We used to play together like every Monday.

Oh, yeah... Duh. Yeah.

What are you like in high school?
Wow, man. Wow.

Hey, let's get together.

You ever get into the city?

Yeah, I work at the Daily Bugle so I am there almost every day.

You work at a newspaper? Oh, cool. Parker is so cool.

We should totally get together.

Paint the town red or something.

This stuff is so important to you now... or, the drama.

Let me tell you—this isn't just about the drama. It's all just training wheels, men, it all fades away.

When real life starts when real life starts you'll know it.

When real life starts, you'll know it.

Trust me.

Ah, see, I knew you was all right for the first time.

If I could go back to high school...

You're more like a lifeguard, you know.

Man, look at you!

This is so off-the-scale weird.

Nope, this is a lifetime job.

And here you are.
I think back then--
Sometimes it-- it's hard to even picture my mom's face, you know?
Sometimes it takes a while.
Yeah.

I look at the pictures and I go, okay, that's then.
But sometimes I worry that I'm not remembering them right...

What's that?

It's a video of your parents.

It's all of us at a picnic. It's-- it's the reason I looked you up.

I thought you'd want a copy.

Well...

That's about the next thing anyone has ever done for me.

Oh, yeah. This is-- this is not high school.

But that's not what I wanted to show you.

This is what I want to show you.

This... this is something...

You know what?

I have something to show you too.
What is that?

It's our inheritance.

The theory isn't a new one. The human body carries within itself the ability to create everything it needs to function. Everything it needs to fight off any disease, to stave off any cancer.

What the suit will do is just help the body help itself. The ultimate natural medical treatment. As you will see in the enclosed space, we are currently in the middle of phase two.

With your generous support we believe that we will be able to bring this suit to the human testing phase sometime in the next two to three years.

Mankind has been plagued by the unknowns of cancer for so long as we have recorded history—and with every passing generation we have found a new and better way to survive and care for ourselves.
Until the lawsuit ends... Until I know who I can trust... here I am, sitting on my hands.

---

Lawyers? God! This isn't what I wanted...

---

PeoLe are dying all over the world... people living with pain...

---

... not only can I not do anything to help them, I can't even tell someone else what I have so they can go finish it.

---

I would have never even gone forward with the experiments if I thought for a second that someone would try to use them like this.

---

Never! I would rather work at Taco Bell. That's where I am right now.

---

Ben, if you're watching this... you were right.

---

Never trust anyone wearing a tie.

---

I'll never say it to your face, but you were right.
Spider-Man:

Spider-Man: God, that feels weird.

Spider-Man: It's cold, but it's... oh no...

Mary Jane: Take back what belongs to me.

Spider-Man: Take just enough--just enough to do my own tests--to match my dad's notes.

Spider-Man: --to match my dad's notes.
Can't get it off. I can't stop this.

Won't let go of me. Can't.

Pad!!

I should never have come near it--I should never have touched it.

Get it off me! Off me!

It's feeding on me. It's going to kill me.

What have I done?

Father!

Going to kill me!

Off me!!

Off me!!

Off me!!

Off me!!

Off me!!

Off me!!

Off me!!

GAAHH!!

Godd!!

SNAAGKKKKK!
What - what have you done?!
It's not what you think. It's - something horrible has happened and we have to -

Peter -

This is all I have left of my father.
It's all I have here.

I know. I know exactly how you feel.

Look at me - I had the thing for an hour and look what happened.
I almost killed a man with my bare hands.
It's a cancer. It's a curse.

Our fathers died for this and we can't - we aren't smart enough to contain this.
And we can't trust anyone else with it.

I have met the people who would take this from us - I know their faces - and listen. I know what lengths they'll go to get it.

I have met the people who would take this from us - I know their faces - and listen. I know what lengths they'll go to get it.

They would want us to destroy it. I believe that. They would.
Before - the wrong people get their hands on it.

Just a little drop accidentally fell on my skin and my whole body - my mind - was horrible.
If it didn't have my powers I don't know if I would have been able to survive it.

Okay? I'm going to take this and I'm going to destroy it.

It's not like I can keep it.

What are you doing here, Peter?

Gibbs, listen to me - listen!

This thing our fathers created - it's uncontrollable.
We can't take responsibility for it. We can't.

Let me take it and destroy it. Let me take it and -

That's mine! It belongs to me and you.

Give it back!
Peter!

No one, Peter—no one told me!

Didn't tell me.

No one!

My heart!

I can do this! Pull it together!

I can pull this—cold...

Knees don’t—my feet are gone. I can do this.

MY FEET!

Peter!

Peter!

I'll kill you for this, my Kreese—
I'll kill you.

Peter, Peter, Peter, Peter, Peter, Peter.

I can hold it together.

My heart isn’t beating. I heard a voice.

Hungry. My heart isn’t beating. I need a voice.

Radio, Peter, Peter.

Where’s the woman that was just—somebody help me!

Peter!

Spider-Man

I can do this—Parker! I can do this! I saw you on TV—saw you on TV—Parker did it!

Think of Peter.

MY HEART ISN’T BEATING IN MY CHEST!

I can do this—Parker!

COME ON!

COME ON!!
